

COM'IN

YOUR BUSINESS NEWSLETTER

CLI GERMANY // BREMEN

INTEGRATION OF REFUGEES

SUCCESSFUL START

IN CLI'S WORKING WORLD //

REMARKABLE PERFORMANCE

AT B2RUN 2017 IN BREMEN

CLI running group is growing internationally – starting at B2Run in Bremen this year:

F.I.t.r.: Alpha Oumar Diallo, Imad Lassissi, Alexander Böhme, Dietmar Graeber, Meike Heydrich, Thekla Warnken, Christina Lindemann, Philipp Siemer, Susanna Dmitritschuk, Helma Focken, Hendrik Martens, Steven John, Lukas Rodday, Björn Zbikowski und Haron Dbah Eldik

Bremen, Juni 26, 2017 – Three refugees between the ages of 19 and 20 find a professional home at Compass Logistics International. After a successfully completed one-year internship at the CLI location in Bremen, the new arrivals will be included in an apprenticeship on August 1, 2017.

”Our prospective trainees already speak very good German and have integrated themselves without any problems into our company,” says CLI CEO Michael Müller. The new employees also show their commitment to sport. With his participation at this year’s B2Run in Bremen (the German Running Championship

»I AM PLEASED THAT OUR PROSPECTIVE TRAINEES FROM SYRIA, BENIN AND GUINEA ALREADY SPEAK VERY GOOD GERMAN AND HAVE INTEGRATED THEMSELVES WITHOUT ANY PROBLEMS INTO OUR COMPANY.«

Michael Müller, CEO

Haron Dbah Eldik (19) from Latakia, Syria, will start his apprenticeship as a freight forwarding specialist at CLI Luft- und Seefracht GmbH. Imad Lassissi (19) from the West-African Porto-Novo, Benin, already made his forklift driving license during the internship and will be trained as a specialist for warehouse logistics. Also Alpha Oumar Diallo (20) from Conakry, Guinea, has his forklift driver’s license in his pocket and will be trained as a specialist in warehouse logistics, too.

for Companies), Alpha Oumar Diallo of the CLI team reached a fantastic result – mastering the 6.5 kilometers within 35 minutes and 16 seconds. ”The team spirit in our company is fun“, says Müller.

Compass Logistics International employs approximately 2,000 people worldwide at over 50 locations in 22 countries. Diversity has been part of the company DNA since launch days, reports the CEO.

At international CLI meetings in western countries, for example, consideration is always given to the religious and cultural habits of the Islamic employees.

IMPRINT: COM'IN is a newsletter for management and staff of the Compass Logistics International AG, Am Kaiserkai 10, 20457 Hamburg. All articles are protected by © Copyright. The distribution of the newsletter or parts of it or the printing of its articles are not allowed without written permission of Compass Logistics International AG.

EDITORS: Dietmar Graeber, Reinhard Pfeiffer

