Compass Logistics International builds third logistics center in Bremen GVZ

- 33,000 square meters logistics area
- 17 Millions invest
- 200 new jobs

Bremen, 24th April, 2015 – The logistics group Compass Logistics International (CLI), since 2013 the owner of Bremen-based logistics provider Kieserling, expands activities on the Weser. Yesterday the corner stone was laid for another logistics center which is supposed to go into service in October this year already.

With the construction of the logistics property which is situated in the Bremen Güterverkehrszentrum (GVZ, Goods Hub) Compass Logistics International expands their capacities in the Hanseatic city by 33,000 sqm to 100,000 sqm of storage and logistics area. The reason for the expansion is growth in CLI's existing customers' business and new customer acquisitions from trade and medical technology.

The new multi user center, a building designed for various ways of use, will contain a 1,600 square meter office complex. It contains a dangerous goods warehouse and is equipped with new and environment-friendly technologies, such as LED lighting. The investment for the construction of the logistics center is at approx. 17 Million Euros. 200 new jobs are created.
